FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Driver iQ Announces Background Screening Integration with TruckRight to Streamline the Transportation Industry's Hiring Processes

Transportation background screening solutions provider Driver iQ announces new integration with TruckRight to streamline the hiring process for the trucking and transportation industry.

Holtsville, NY – October 13, 2020

Driver iQ, a leading background screening provider for the transportation industry, announces the release of its new integration with TruckRight, which offers the trucking industry a fully-integrated software suite that simplifies recruiting, HR, and compliance.

The highly anticipated software integration will provide TruckRight clients with access to Driver iQ's comprehensive background screening solution tailored for the unique needs of the transportation industry. With the integration, mutual clients can hire safe, quality drivers even faster by performing secure, accurate and up-to-date background checks.

"We are excited to be able to offer this streamlined hiring platform to our clients," said Todd Hensley, President of Driver iQ. "With this integration, Driver iQ and TruckRight customers will be better able to access accurate and up-to-date driver information. Now, they have access to an efficient, effective tool that will help them with daily operations by maximizing recruiting efforts."

"With the current driver shortage, there is a need – more than ever – to get drivers in seats, faster," said Dirk Kupar, Co-Founder and CEO of TruckRight. "Driver iQ's professional background screening service will allow our valued TruckRight clients to do this quickly, effectively and safely."

Driver iQ's integration with TruckRight provides an enhanced recruitment experience for talent acquisition teams in the transportation industry. For more information about Driver iQ, visit www.DriveriQ.com.
