West Virginia	6/8/2021	The West Virginia Division of Motor Vehicles (WV DMV) is encouraging all customers to take advantage of online services as much as possible at dmv.wv.gov. Customers may use our online services portal to renew their vehicle registration, renew their driver's license (every other cycle and with no changes), apply for duplicates, pay reinstatement fees, print a driving record, and do many more transactions. DMV also has several kiosks across the state that allow customers to skip the trip to the Regional Offices and renew their vehicle registration or driver's license (every other cycle and with no changes), as well as print their driving record and apply for duplicates. Additionally, if customers don't have an internet connection, some online transactions may be completed over the phone (call volumes may be high). DMV work may also be completed through the mail, by sending in the appropriate forms. All Regional Offices are open through a new appointment-based system for services that must be done in-person, including transferring an out-of-state driver's license, issuing an original identification card, reissuing an ID card or driver's license with changes, driver knowledge examinations, and salesperson knowledge examinations. Vehicle transaction appointments, including title work and registration renewals, have been added to select locations. Customers may visit the DMV website or use this link: go.wv.gov/DMVappointment to make an appointment. Those without internet access can call 304-558-3938 to make an appointment. Additionally, all Regional Offices, minus the Fairmont Exam Center, have a secure drop box located outside the office for customers to leave title and registration work.	Customers may renew a driver's license (with no changes) every other cycle online or at a kiosk.	All DLs with an expiration of 3/1/20 are extended until 3/31/21. Medical Examination Certificates or CDL licenses with an expiration date of 12/1/20 up to 2/28/21 that were covered under the previous FMCSA extension will expire on 6/01/21. WVDMMV has restarted a process to automatically downgrade CDL holders who have an expired Medical Evaluation Certificate (MEC). The automatic downgrades will apply to any CDL holder with a MEC that expired before 9/1/20. If a CDL holder is downgraded due to an expired MEC, they can't legally operate a Commercial Motor Vehicle. The latest FMCSA extension waiver that approved extensions for expiring MEC's on or after 9/1/20 is in effect until 2/28/21. Any CDL holder with a MEC that expired on or after 9/1/20 will need to provide a current MEC by 2/28/21 or the CDL will be automatically downgraded. As a reminder, earlier extensions for CDL holders with an MEC that expired before 9/1/20 were already downgraded if they did not present a current MEC. To rectify the downgrade, a CDL holder need only present a current MEC to resume CDL privileges.
